

Consumer Credit
Counseling Service
Of Northeastern Iowa

CCCS Budget Evaluation Form

This document is for your own use. Others have found it important in determining how to "fine tune" their spending habits. This is not a legal document, nor is it binding in any way.

Your Own Answers

What Your Spouse/Partner Would Answer

What are your money worries? What do you think might happen?

What money topic often starts an argument within the family? With other relatives? With friends?

If you had to cut spending, where could this be done? How much of a reduction could be made?

If you suddenly had $10,000, what would you do with it?

What was the poorest choice(s) you've ever made with money? Why?

For what does it bother you to spend money on?

If you had to cut spending, where could this be done? How much of a reduction could be made?

Do you think you are:

too tight too free about right with spending money

Do you think your Spouse is:

too tight too free about right with spending money

For what do you really like to spend money on?

What is it important for you to save money for?

How are spending decisions made in your home?
